SESSION 1: FRIDAY AFTERNOON, APRIL 26, 2019

1:00 PM - 2:30 PM, Presentation

1. A Day in the Life of a Forensic Pathologist (1.5 CEU credit hours)

Dr. Jim Caruso, MD, Chief Medical Examiner, Denver

This presentation will give a background of the practice of forensic pathology and the state of the background of the medical examiner and coroner systems (and the difference between the two), the differences between hospital autopsies and forensic autopsies, finishing with some interesting case examples to illustrate the daily workload and case flow.

3:00 PM - 4:30 PM, Presentation

2. Lung Pathology for Histotechns (1.5 CEU credit hours)

Dr. Carlyne Cool, MD, National Jewish Hospital

Histology is critical to the diagnosis of disease in lung tissue specimens. This presentation will demonstrate the role of the histology lab in the treatment of patients with diseases of the lung.

4:30 - 6:00 PM, Social

SESSION 2: SATURDAY MORNING, APRIL 27, 2019

8:00 AM - 9:30 AM, Presentations

3. Histologic Considerations for Digital Pathology Implementation (1.5 CEU credit hours)

Ms. Liz Chlipala, BS, HTL (ASCP) QIHC, Premier Laboratory, LLC

This talk will discuss the effects of the widespread introduction of digital imaging systems into histology labs. Considerations covered will include: pre-analytics, quality control, and work flow effects, among others.

4. Differential Diagnosis of Gynecologic Pathology: Gross Examination to Microscopic Findings

(1.5 CEU credit hours)

Dr. Miriam Post, MD, University of Colorado Denver, Department of Pathology

Examples of significant differential diagnoses including both gross and microscopic findings, as well as the variety of immunohistochemical and other special stains which can be used to reach the best diagnosis will be reviewed.

9:30 AM - 10:00 AM, Break

SESSION 2: SATURDAY MORNING, APRIL 27, 2019

10:00 AM - 11:30 AM, Presentations

5. Practical Aspects of Digital Pathology in Implementation (1.5 CEU credit hours)

Mr. John Wellbank, Thermo-Fisher

Histology labs will be faced with increasing demand to digitize images of tissue specimens. This presentation will cover the technology of digital imaging systems, including the development of imaging technology to current practice and future considerations.

6. Classification of Pediatric Brain Tumors (1.5 CEU credit hours)

Dr. Ahmed Gilani, MD, Children's Hospital of Colorado

Dr. Gilani will discuss the diagnosis and classification of brain tumors in pediatric patients.

11:30 PM - 1:30 PM Lunch & CSH Business Meeting

SESSION 3: SATURDAY AFTERNOON, APRIL 27, 2019

1:30 PM - 2:30 PM, Presentations

7. The Names of the Stains (1.0 CEU credit hours)

Ms. Jane Parr, BS, HT (ASCP), National Jewish Hospital, and Ms. Jean Mitchell, BS, HT (ASCP), Newcomer Supply
This presentation will focus on "the names of the stains", and an introductory lesson in histology history. Harris, Gomori, Gill, Mayer and Van Gieson are common names and stains spoken on a daily basis by histologists in their every-day working laboratory environment. But what do we really know about the names and these people we talk about every day? We will explore a name, add a face and detail the history to "the names of the stains" that have been our friends for many years but who we have never been introduced to.

8. IHC Chromogens: The Many Colors of Immunohistochemistry (1.0 CEU credit hours)

Ms. Liz Chlipala, BS, HTL (ASCP) QIHC, Premier Laboratory, LLC

Alternative chromogens can be useful to visualize aspects of IHC staining when aspects of tissue samples can be difficult to distinguish from standard brown and red chromogens. This presentation will discuss the different chromogens that are available today and cases in which they are useful. Technical considerations for the use of these chromogens will be discussed.

2:30 PM - 3:00 PM Break

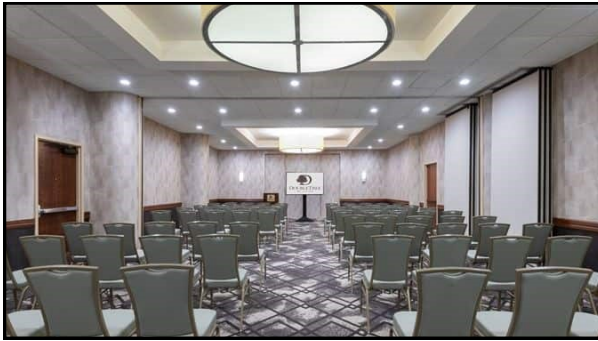

3:00 PM - 4:30 PM, Presentation

9. Renal Pathology for Histotechs (1.5 CEU credit hours)

Dr. Lian Zhang, MD, University of Colorado Denver Department of Pathology

Kidney biopsies are often some of the most challenging to process in the histology lab. Dr. Zhang will demonstrate the diagnostic utility of the stains performed on renal biopsy specimens.

MEETING ROOMS

Classrooms and vendor exhibit area at the DoubleTree hotel have yet to be assigned. This information will be posted on the CSH website as it becomes available.

NOMINATIONS FOR 2019 CSH AWARDS

CSH is accepting nominations for the 2019 awards, which will be presented at the state meeting in Denver on April 27th, 2019. These awards are a great way to honor your colleagues. However, you can also nominate yourself if you feel that you are deserving of an award and need some financial support for upcoming meetings that you would like to attend. Several of the awards have a cash value ranging from $200.00 - $500.00. These awards are a wonderful benefit of membership to the CSH so please take advantage of them. Deadline for nominations is 3/22/19. Please use the online nomination form available on the CSH website, https://www.coloradohisto.org/content.aspx?page_id=22&club_id=669574&module_id=329684

If you have any questions regarding nominations or the awards, please contact the CSH awards chairperson, Ms. Elizabeth Chlipala, liz@premierlab.com
